CONSENT JUDGMENT OF JUDGE B A CORKILL

[1]      The parties have successfully resolved all issues between them, and have requested that the resulting settlement be the subject of a consent judgment of the Court.

[2]      The parties' agreement resolves the plaintiff's challenge and constitutes a full and final settlement of all matters between them arising out of their employment relationship.

[3]      The parties have also agreed that the determination of the Employment Relations Authority (the Authority) should be set aside.<sup>1</sup> By operation of s 183(2) of the Act this judgment now stands in the place of the Authority's determination dated 5 September 2014.

[4] There is no issue between the parties as to costs. The other terms of settlement are set out in a consent memorandum filed with the Court, which I direct is now the subject of an order of non-publication under cl 12(2) of Sch 3 of the Employment Relations Act 2000 (the Act), since its terms are agreed to be confidential.
