Supplementary Judgment of Judge C M Shaw

[1]    On 29 May 2006, an interim injunction was issued until further order of the Employment Relations Authority.

[2]    The parties have filed a memorandum of consent advising that the proceedings between them in the Employment Relations Authority have been resolved to the parties' mutual satisfaction and requesting that the interim injunction be discharged by consent. There will be an order to that effect.

[3]    No issues of costs or damages arise.
