

VISITING THE CHRISTCHURCH JUSTICE AND EMERGENCY PRECINCT

Information for the Employment Court, Te Kōti Take Mahi o Aotearoa

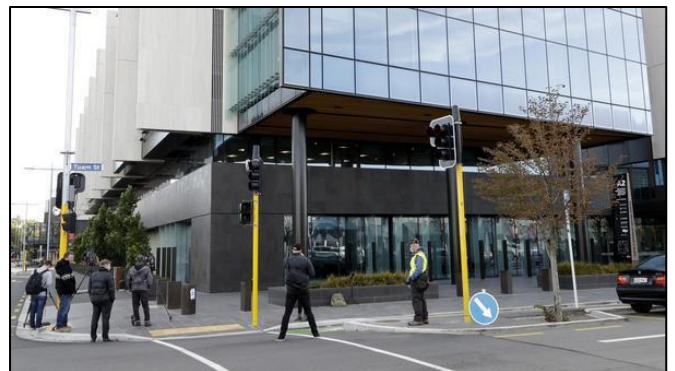

Nau mai haere mai and welcome to the Employment Court, Te Kōti Take Mahi o Aotearoa, in the Justice and Emergency Precinct (CJESP) in Christchurch. Here are some things you will find useful for your visit.

Location

The CJESP brings together all justice and emergency services in one purpose-built, leading-edge precinct in central Christchurch. The CJESP occupies almost an entire city block and is made up of 3 buildings, the Justice building, the Emergency Services building and a car park for operational vehicles. It is located in the central city block bordered by Tuam, Durham, and Lichfield Streets in Christchurch's CBD.

The Justice building has two public entrances:

20 Lichfield Street Christchurch	109 Tuam Street Christchurch

When you arrive

Security

Court Security Officers (CSOs) are located in both entrances, next to the escalators – please follow the instructions of the CSOs on arrival.

Access

Access generally is up the escalators. Should you require lift access to Level 1 please ask the CSOs at security where to find them. Once on Level 1 there are stairs and lifts at both the Lichfield Street and Tuam Street sides of the building to take you up to Levels 2 and 3.
